New Marriage Law.

Many pertinent questions propounded by the clerk, and they must be truthfully answered, has a tendency to reduce the divorce record. A complete record of the contracting parties will be necessary before the license can be granted, including a health statement from both bride and bridegroom, age of both, residence and place of birth, name of parents, occupation, whether single, widowed or divorced. If the clerk has any doubt as to the truthfulness of the age, health or occupation report of the contracting parties, he can require a bond in the sum of $100. The minister or justice of the peace performing the ceremony is required to furnish the couple with a certificate of marriage. The law applies to both white and colored people alike.

Constipation causes headache, indigestion, dizziness, drowsiness. For a mild, opening medicine, use Doan's Regulax. 25c a box at all stores.

A Find to Help the Lazy Man.

The Anderson News reports a man that has perfected a lawn grass that never grows high enough to need a lawn mower. God bless his invention! Send him to Fal-mouth.—Pendletonian.

Chautauqua Ticket Sale.

Everybody is getting ready for Chautauqua Week, which begins July 5th. The programme promises the best series of performances we have ever had. The ticket sale is now on, the management of which is in the hands of W. S. Broadus, office our the Southern National Bank; Mrs. Scrivner, at Dr. Smoot's office; Mr. or Mrs. F. H. Stiver, Water street. Those who have subscribed for tickets can secure them by applying to any of the above named. All those residing out of the city will find their tickets at the office of Mr. Broadus, in the Southern Bank building. As there is only a limited supply of season tickets for the local management, it will be well to call for them at once, as it will be first come first served. It will be recalled that the supply was exhausted last year several days before Chautauqua opened, many being unable to secure their tickets. Some of the single performances this year are $1, so you do not want to miss securing a season ticket for $2, which will admit you to all 21 performances.

If.

If I had only Jones' luck
I'd make a million cold;
If I had only Smith's pull
His office I would hold.

If I had lived in younger days,
I would have made my mark;
If I'd been born under other stars
The world to me would hark.

If I had not to grub for bread,
My muse thanking would thrill;
If all the world were not awry,
I should be famous still.

But tho' I lay the blame on chance,
I notice with a sigh,
The fact I cannot quite escape,
That half of "If" is "I!"

All entries for the primary August 1st are in. Three parties will have primaries and there will be nominated by the Democrats, Republicans and Progressives to be voted on at the election next November—one candidate for U. S. The names of candidates on the party ballot for Senator will rotate by districts. 17-Year Locust.
The 17-year locusts, last seen in 1897, are due to reappear this year, according to a late bulletin sent out by the State Agricultural Experiment station at Lexington, warning farmers and fruit growers. The 17-year locust is harmful, because in the worm state it lives by sucking sap out of the roots of trees and shrubbery, and when eggs are laid, trees and plants on which they are deposited die. The locust is the longest-lived insect known to scientists. Seventeen years ago the eggs from which this year's crop of locusts will be hatched were laid on trees and shrubbery. The eggs, after three weeks, developed into worms, which dropped from the trees and burrowed into the ground, where they have lived since 1897, preying on the roots of trees. Some time in June they are expected to reappear and develop into locusts.

FEET AND FLOORS.
How the Body May Be Robbed of Its Heat and Vitality.
A cold floor is one that conducts heat away from the body, not necessarily one that is cold in itself. A wooden floor and a stone floor exposed to the cold will in themselves have no great difference in temperature. But one may walk barefooted over a wooden floor with comparative comfort, no matter how cold the weather, while a stone floor will seem to freeze the feet. On the other hand, in a warm room the stone floor will be warmer than the wooden floor, for it will take up the heat. Thus the heat from a radiator standing on a stone or tile floor will make it warm for several feet in every direction, but it will affect the wooden floor only very slightly. A cold floor, therefore, is not a floor which sends cold into the body through the feet, but one which takes away the body heat, leaving it cold.

Life consists in keeping up the body heat. It is in order to get sufficient body heat that we eat and to retain it that we wear clothes. Where there is no wind and if we moved hardly at all clothes would not be necessary, because the heat of the body would keep a layer of heated air about us all the time. But the wind and our natural movements constantly disperse this layer of heated air, and in consequence we wear clothes to keep this layer in. In summer coolness is secured by loose clothing, which lets the wind blow away the heated air; in spring and fall more closely woven garments keep the heated air near. In very cold weather furs are used, because the skin and the fur afford a powerful resistance to the escape of body heat. As long as the body heat is kept up illness is likely to be a long time away.

Cold floors rob us of body heat—they steal away our vitality. The slow sapping of vitality that comes from standing on cold floors is fearfully weakening to the system. No matter how old or ragged a rug or carpet, no matter how thin a cork or fiber mat, it will lengthen your life and save you from numerous discomforts which cold floors cause.—New York Journal.

Democrats Happy.

"Democrats have every reason to rejoice in having given to the country the greatest President since Jefferson, and one who has made an unparalleled record of achievements for the public welfare during the first year of his administration. Soldiers of the common good are now in the saddle and the forces of greed are in full retreat. There is more to be done, however, and we must press the advantage we have gained. Democrats everywhere should be aggressive in the battle to hasten the coming of the day when liberty and justice shall reign supreme and each man shall be all men's aim."—Joseph W. Folk.

Where Ohio Farmers Borrowed $12,000,000.

In the State of Ohio over twelve million dollars are now out on loan to farmers from building and loan associations. This is over 16 per cent of all the farm loans in the State. Only six counties do not have these associations, which are virtually farmers' land banks. The plan is extremely well developed, is now twenty years old, and, in Mr. Haymaker's opinion, needs leadership more than any legislation.--Farm and Fireside.

Bede's Humor.

Flat music is sometimes produced on an upright piano.

We presume the cooks' union will endorse the skillet hat.

Some self-made men look as if the job had been done at odd moments.

Married folks who don't want to raise families are merely dodging the issue.

We would rather be handed hot air any day than be given the cold shoulder.

It's funny that the person who knows it all never puts any of his knowledge into practice.

Women may not be mathematicians, but when it comes to figures, they are right there.

Over in England the suffragettes are throwing bombs. Over here they are casting ballots.

Of course you have not neglected to do today the things that were yesterday put off till tomorrow.

Somewhat the things we would like to forget stick to us better than the things we would like to remember.

Women are said to be the wine of life, but probably even they would not claim that they improve with age.

They say there are no marriages in heaven and no police in hades. What do men do in those places for a living?

A grown up man appears out of place holding his sweetheart on his lap--but it is really the young lady who is out of place.

An exchange says that ultra violet rays can do anything, from exploding topedoes to lighting lamps. Can they make a diaphanous gown so it can't be seen through?

If there is anything that disappoints a person it is to shake hands with a bright looking person and be handed a flipper with less life in it than in the tail of a shredded codfish.

German investigators have found that radium acts powerfully on dormant plants. After a few hours' exposure to the emanation lice buds sprang into vigorous growth at the end of November. But a fraction of an ounce of the metal was used in the experiment. We would like about a ton for use on some human beings--we know. About that amount ought to bring about some signs of life.

The new Way ~
A Hoosier Cabinet makes a Model Kitchen

When you know that 700,000 women use Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets three times every day, doesn't it suggest to you that you need this drudgery-saver in YOUR kitchen?

Figure it out to yourself this way: Would they have bought these cabinets without convincing themselves that they SAVE MILES OF STEPS and hours of time? Would so many have bought them at all if users hadn't told others and thus influenced their friends to buy them.

Since this means that more Hoosier Cabinets have been sold than all other 128 makes of cabinets combined, isn't it proof enough that the Hoosier is the best cabinet on the market?

When you see how the Hoosier groups four cupboards around a large metal table and places 400 articles at your fingers' ends so you can sit down and work--AND REST while working--you'll want one of these "White Beauties."

"Smiles are roses along the way."
"This infant may some day make himself heard in the world," said the cler-gyman about to christen a baby boy.
And the next moment when the kid felt the cold water the clergyman's words came true.

Miss Clara Steele, of Frankfort, was struck by lightning while sitting in a swing on the front porch. Steele always attracts lightning.

"I don't like your heart action," the doctor said, applying the stethoscope again. "You have had some trouble with angina pectoris."

"You're partly right, doctor," said the young man, sheepishly; only that ain't her name!"

No woman over forty can ever repay the obligation she owes to the dotted veil.

At the wedding reception the young man remarked: "Wasn't it annoying
the way that baby cried during the ceremony?"

"It was simply awful," replied the prim little maid of honor; "and when I got married I'm going to have engraved right in the corner of the invitation, 'No babies expected!'"

S. S. Teacher: "Why, Willie, have you been fighting again? Didn't you learn in last Sunday's lesson that when you are struck on one cheek you ought to turn the other one to the striker?"

Willie: "Yes'm; but he hit me on the nose, and I've only got one!"

No man can knock you on the sly
And do so with impunity;
The only knocker who gets by
Is known as Opportunity.

"Washing dishes roughens the skin and flattens the fingers."

"Yes, isn't it fortunate one's hands are not at all injured by playing bridge?"

Dod Gaston never reads the paper
when his wife has been to an afternoon party. Dod says it isn't necessary.

Scientists declare that at the age of 30
the female brain begins to lose weight, but that of the male not until the age of 40.

Mary had a little sheep.
But they killed it, so they say;
And gave the skin to Mary
On her graduation day!

Nature, the Great Shop-keeper.

"I see somebody gave you a black eye," said Mrs. Finnegan to her husband.

"Gave it to me!" exclaimed Pat; "like fun they did—I had to fight for it!"
And so saying Pat unintentionally expressed a Great Truth.

Nothing is given away. Everything is purchased at a price—even black eyes.

Nature is the great shop-keeper.
For every need of life you must deal with her.

And she gives nothing away—nor does she open charge accounts.

Nature demands an equivalent.
If you want good health Nature has a big supply of it in stock at all times and the price tag will read "Plain Living!"

If you want success you can get it from Nature at the very reasonable price of "brains, hard work and honor."

If you want happiness, again you must deal with Nature. She can supply it in any quantity at the cost of "love, kindness and good will."

Nor does Nature only deal in the good things of life.

Down in the "bargain basement" you can get a big assortment of failure, disease and poverty, all marked down very low.

Of course, you wonder how Nature can do any business in her "bargain basement," since all the good things are on sale above.

So do I wonder—but she does, just the same.—Common Sense.

Lemonade.

It is a helpful, soothing drink, when flies are bad and days hot; and whether it is white or pink it always seems to hit the spot. I drink it with the lovely dames, where drugstore clerks take in the kale; I drink it at the baseball games, at home I sip it by the pool. Of all soft drinks it is the best, as every learned physician knows: It always soothes my savage breast, and gives my warlike soul repose. It takes the fungus from my tongue, and kills the toadstools in my throat; and I feel brave and gay and young, when all my innards are afloat; when they're afloat in lemonade, my head is clear, my nerve is strong; I face my duties unafraid, and put up hay the whole day long. And when the cool, gray morning breaks, I do not see, besides my bed, a bunch of hydra-headed snakes with pea-green antlers on each head. I rise refreshed, so full of vim and of aggressive strength
so full, that when I've sung my morning hymn, I go out doors and whip a bull.

Interesting Facts About Coffee

(From St. Louis Times, May 18, 1914)
The department of foods of the Columbia University, New York, have made some very interesting experiments with coffee.

Amongst other beneficial tests they find that coffee, when pulverized, is not only 100 per cent efficient, but will produce as much color and strength as two parts of a medium ground coffee, not sifted, and as much as four parts of the medium ground, sifted.

In other words, they have positively proven that pulverized coffee has doubled the drawing efficiency of the un-sifted medium ground, which is the method in which coffee is most generally used.

The bureau of foods recommends the use of pulverized coffee, distinctly specifying that pulverized coffee retains the real quality of the bean, more so than any other method.

One pound of pulverized coffee will make just as many cups of good, wholesome coffee as two pounds of ground or medium granulated coffee will produce ordinary quality of coffee.

Attention was called to a new process drip coffee pot that by actual demonstration proved to be far superior to any percolator.

Experts declare that its retaining qualities permitted the most wholesome, aromatic fluid that had ever been poured from a coffee pot.

As a consequence, the sanitary drip coffee pot is destined to replace percolators and other coffee retainers in the majority of coffee drinking homes.

It is an assured fact that the public will drink considerable more coffee when it is made in this method, and grocers generally are making a concerted effort to push the sale of these pots.

Land, Stock, Crop

McKee Bros., of Versailles, have recently sold a car-load of Duro-Jersey hogs to S. D. Pambrugh, of Bishops, Ga. The car contained 30 sows and two boars.

This year's wool crop in the United States is valued at $65,000,000.

The barn of Samuel Woolridge, of Woodford county, was destroyed by fire Thursday night last. The barn contained feed, harness, etc. Loss $2,500; insurance, $750.

There was a large amount of stock on the market at Mt. Sterling court day.
Cattle brought 6 1-2 to 8 1-4; steers 6 to 7 1-2; heifers 6 to 7c. Trade slow and few cattle sold.

Col. R. H. Soaper, the largest individual corn grower in Fulton county, will plant 3,000 acres of corn this year. He owns several of the finest river bottom farms in that county.

Conservative estimates place the acreage of tobacco set out as very large. In sections where rain was frequent the plants were out earlier and the tobacco is doing well and in other sections where drouth prevailed the planting was delayed, but is doing fine since the rains.
Much tobacco during the dry spell was set out by machines.

E. L. Woods, of Paint Lick, bought 25 lambs at 7 1-2c from John Speaks, of the Marksburg section, in Garrard.

W. N. Rogers, of Lancaster, bought a mare mule from Wm. Arbuckle, of Kirkville, for $230.

June county court day at Mt. Sterling was the dullist in years. About 1,500 cattle were on the market, quality fair.
No stuff of good weight for sale for feeders this fall. Trade was slow and a good many cattle left over. Prices were stiff and most sales were made by the head.
There was not as large a crowd at the pens as usual. The best prices of the day was for yearlings, which brought 8 9c; heifers sold at 7 to 7 1-2c, weighed up; cows at 5 to 6 1-2c; bulls 6 to 7c; old cows and rough oxen 5 to 5 1-2c; oxen at 5 1-2 to 6 1-2c.

Making the Little Farm Pay

By C. C. BOWSFIELD

A POULTRY owner's troubles and losses do not actually begin until he has a few scores of baby chickens on his hands. Success or failure will be determined at this point.

Chickens do not require food for the first thirty-six hours after hatching, one of the best foods that can be fed the first few days is stale bread soaked in milk. This should be crumbled and placed where the chickens have free access to it and where they cannot step on it. One of the difficult problems for the poultryman is to devise some means for feeding little chickens so that they can consume the food without soiling it. If placed on the floor of the brooder or the brooder run the larger part of the food will be tramped upon and will soon become unfit to eat. Small, narrow trays or troughs are easily made and answer the purpose of keeping the chicks from tramping on their food.

Granulated oats (with the hulls removed) make an excellent food for young chickens. There is perhaps no better grain for young chickens than oats prepared in this manner. It may be fed to good advantage after the second or third day in connection with the bread soaked in milk.

The chickens should have free access to some kind of grit after the first day. Coarse sand makes an excellent grit for young chickens. As they get a little older some coarser material must be provided.

Milk is an excellent food for these young fowls, but it requires skill in feeding. One of the great difficulties in rearing fowls is to carry young chickens through the first two weeks without bowel disorders. Too low temperature in the brooder, improper food and injudicious feeding, even if the right kinds of food are given, each plays an important part in producing these disorders.

After the first ten days milk may be given more freely perhaps than during the earlier stages of the chick's existence.

A mixture of fine middlings, wheat bran, cornmeal and a little linseed oil softened with milk makes a valuable food. Hard boiled eggs may be fed from the beginning, but, like milk, require more skill than the feeding of bread soaked in milk. On farms where feedings from the various grains become really a by-product these form a cheap and efficient food for chickens. About screenings especially form one of the best foods if they contain a considerable portion of good kernels that have been cracked in threshing. Then, the screenings contain a number of seeds that have some feeding value and are relished by the fowls. They not only provide sustenance, but variety, and this in a measure improves the general health.

A good mixture of grains is equal to whole wheat, cracked corn and crushed oats. Some poultrymen prefer to feed wheat one day, corn the next and oats the next. This is all right either way. Grain once a day is sufficient if a variety of other food is available. A cheap and valuable food is stale bread or rolls which bakeries and restaurants sell at a cent a pound. Feed and restaurant table scraps may be obtained at a small cost. All kinds of vegetables, raw or cooked, may be used. Most scraps or ground feed may be fed sparingly with mash. The grain in a clean litter early in the morning, mash at noon and vegetables, softened bread or grain in the evening. Make the mash with skim milk if it is available. Sour milk and whey are good substitutes now and then for mature fowls.

Where fowls are kept in confinement it will be necessary to supply some meat food. Finely cut fresh bone from meat markets is one of the best, if not the best, kind of meat for laying hens. Unfortunately it is not practical for many poultrymen to depend solely on this product, for the reason that it is often inconvenient or impossible to obtain, and when once secured cannot be kept in warm weather without becoming tainted. Tainted bones should be rejected as unfit for food. Skim milk may be substituted wholly or in part for meat food without a decrease in egg production, provided the proper grain ration is given.

Flowering Pear Trees.
If pear trees flower heavily a few of the smaller blossoms on each tree should be thinned out.

TO LABOR IS TO PRAY.

A priest was called upon to pray over the barren fields of his parishioners. He passed from one inclosure to another and pronounced his benediction until he came to a most unpromising estate. He surveyed the sterile acres in despair. "Ah," said he, "brethren, no use to pray here! This needs fertilizing."—Argonaut.

Season Tickets for Our Forthcoming Redpath Chautauqua

In arranging to inaugurate this chautauqua this year the local committee bought 1,000 $2.50 season tickets, which will be sold, while they last, by them for $2.00 each.

When these tickets are exhausted no season tickets thereafter can be had for less than $2.50. Also, the price of season tickets will not be reduced from the first day to the close of the chautauqua.

The single admissions to the different sessions of this chautauqua aggregate more than $8.00, so it will pay you to buy a season ticket even after the program is half completed. For the single admissions to the respective entertainments see program. Season tickets are non-transferable except within the owner's family.

CHILDREN'S TICKETS admit children aged six to fourteen years inclusive. All children are admitted to the children's work free.

Chautauqua Week Here July 5th to 11th

Kellogg-Haines Singing Party as They Appear in Light Opera

LIGHT OPERA by the well known Kellogg-Haines Singing Party will be another most enjoyable event of Chautauqua week. One of the operas which this company presents is "Lovely Galatea," the entire rendition being given in addition to brief selections from other operas. Where, however, the date of this company comes on Sunday at a Chautauqua they will present selections from the oratorios instead of grand operas or will give a sacred concert.

Don't Grow Bald

USE PARISIAN SAGE.

If your hair is getting thin, losing its natural color, or has that matted, lifeless and scraggy appearance, the reason is evident—dandruff and failure to keep the hair roots properly nourished.

Parisian Sage applied daily for a week and then occasionally is all that is needed. It removes dandruff with one application; almost immediately stops falling hair and itching head; invigorates the scalp and makes dull, stringy hair soft, abundant and radiant with life. Equally good for men, women or children—every one needs it.

A large bottle of this delightful hair tonic can be had from Perry's Drug Store or any drug store for 50 cents. You will surely like Parisian Sage. There is no other "Just as good." Try it now.

First-Born Children.

The eldest child was found by the investigation of the German scientist, Dr. Vaerting, to have by far the best chance of turning out distinguished, says H. Ellis, in Harper's Weekly. The third son has the next best chance, and then the second, the comparatively bad position of the second being attributed to the too brief interval which often follows the birth of the first child. He also notes that of all the professions the clergy come beyond comparison first as the parent of distinguished sons (who are, however, rarely of the highest degree of eminence), lawyers following, while officers in the army and physicians, scarcely figure at all. Vaerting is inclined to see in this order, especially in the predominance of the clergy, the favorable influence of an unexhausted reserve of energy and a habit of chastity on intellectual procreancy. This is one of his main conclusions.

We hate to do it, but we must—at the QUICK ACTION SALE!

Kentucky Woman, Sufferer From Stomach Ills, Quickly Restored

Mrs. Belle Hawkins Uses Mayr Remedy—"Never Felt Better in My Life."

Mrs. Belle Hawkins, Eminence, Ky., was a victim of stomach disorders. She took a great deal of treatment and medical attention.

At last she tried Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and got real results. In a letter telling of her experience, she said:

"I have taken all of the medicine I ordered of you and will say that it has done more good than all the doctors and medicine I ever tried. I don't really think I need any medicine now, as I think I am well. I never felt better in my life. If I ever should need any medicine I know where to get it."

That is a typical letter, taken as one among the thousands from the users of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. The first dose proves—no long treatment.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucous accretions and removes poisonous matter. It brings swift relief to sufferers from ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. Many declare it has saved them from dangerous operations and many are sure it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitators, so be cautious. Be sure it's MAYR'S. Go to Perry's Drug Store and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting Street, Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you of its wonderful effects.

A Sample of Billy Sunday.

The following report of a portion of Billy Sunday's alleged sermon on David and Goliath is given:

"All of the sons of Jesse except David went off to war. They left David at home because he was only a kid. After a while David's ma got worried. She wondered what had become of his brothers, because they hadn't telephoned to her or sent word so she said to David: 'David, you go down there and see if they are all right.'"

"So David hikes off to where the war is and the first morning he is there, out comes this big Goliath, a big, strapping fellow about 11 feet tall who commenced shooting off his mouth as to what he was going to do."

"Who's that big stiff putting up that game talk?" asked David of his brothers.

"Oh, he's the whole works; he's the head cheese of the Philistines. He does that little stunt every day."

"Say," said David, "you guys make me sick. Why don't some of you fellows go out and soak that guy? You let him get away with that stuff!" He decided to go out and tell Goliath where to head in.

"So Saul said: 'You'd better take my armor and sword.' David put them on, but he felt like a fellow with a hand-me-down suit about four times too big for him, so he took them off and with nothing but his sling and a rock, put the giant Goliath down for the count. David drew his sword and chopped off his block and the rest of the gang then beat it."

Paid Fine to Wife.

The mayor of a Pennsylvania city when fining a young husband for disorderly conduct, due to intoxication, said: "I'll fine you $25, but instead of paying it to the city you must pay it to your wife. Do you promise, on your word of honor, to do this?"

The defendant agreed to the arrangement and was released. The plan might be a good one for adoption in other cities, or better still, cut out the booze.—Alliance Review.

A regular morning operation of the bowels puts you in fine shape for the day's work. If you miss it you feel uncomfortable and can not put vim into your movements. For all bowel irregularities HERBINE is the remedy. It purifies, strengthens and regulates. Price 50c. Sold by Wines' Drug Store. jun.

Important Decision.

The Supreme Court of the United States reversed the conviction of the International Harvester Company of violation of the anti-trust laws of Kentucky with fines of $5,000 each in five cases. Suits were brought in five Kentucky counties against the Harvester Company. Violation of the State's anti-pooling statutes were alleged and that prices for agricultural implements were raised through pools with the Deering and Milwaukee corporations was charged. The court pointed out that the penalties were in conflict with another State law which permitted tobacco growers' pools to enhance prices. Justice Holmes stated that the law of Kentucky allowed the enhancement of prices by combination up to the "real value" of the articles in question. The court set aside the penalties on the ground that the exemption of tobacco pools from the operation of the trust laws made penalties on manufacturers for enhancing prices invalid.

Insurance War Settled.

Fire insurance companies have resumed business in Kentucky, after having suspended business since the passage of the Glenn-Greene insurance law by the last Legislature. Richmond agents have been notified to that effect. A conference was held in Louisville last week and concessions were made both by the State officials and by the representatives of the companies. In order to make the Glenn-Greene bill inoperative, a suit was brought before Judge Stout, who declared the law unconstitutional.

The agreement has been ratified by the companies and signed by Gov. McCreary. This ends, for a time, at least, a most vexing problem for many business men and it is hoped that by the time the next Legislature meets a bill will be drawn that will be satisfactory both to the State officials and insurance companies.

The Glenn bill is to be suspended pending the test of its legality in the courts.

The Governor is to appoint a commission of three to study the fire insurance situation and recommend a new law to the next Legislature.

There is to be an immediate reduction of 10 per cent. in rates on residence property in the cities, a 15 per cent. reduction upon loose leaf tobacco and certain increases upon "unprotected business property."

As showing the spaciousness of the largest of the modern ocean liners, attention is drawn to the ballroom on the "Waterland," which is 50 feet in length, 55 feet in width and 21 feet in clear height. In spite of its great span, this room has no supporting columns whatsoever, the roof being carried by overhead girders, extending from side wall to side wall. Cohen Wins at Dayton, Ohio.
Matt S. Cohen, the noted Lexington rider and trainer of saddle and show horses, won four first and one second prize out of five appearances in the ring at the horse show last Wednesday at Dayton, Ohio. An Act of Kindness.
A lady was passing down a street in the suburbs of a city, evidently going to a car. A calf in a vacant lot across the street had entangled its rope among the bushes, until about all it could do was to send out its tail of distress. The lady looked at her watch, at the calf and in the direction of the street car track. Then she hastened across the street and released the suffering animal. When she returned, I said: "You missed your car." "No matter," she replied, "if I had missed my opportunity to do good to that little calf, I would have heard that cry all my life."

Cost of Panama Canal in Lives.
In a letter to Hon. Geo. M. Young, Representative in Congress, Col. Goethals' states that from May, 1904, to March, 1914, 1,219 lives were lost on the Panama Canal through accidents. This total covers only those deaths which resulted from accidents happening on the work, except that it includes 167 deaths from accidental drowning, all of which did not occur on the work. From August, 1908, to March, 1914, the accidents resulting in injuries reached a total of 25,101. Mr. Young called the attention of Congress to the fact that the loss of life through accidents, as here recorded, was greater than that during the war 1812, or during the Mexican war.

A Railroaders Prayer.
An old railroad worker was converted, and being present at a meeting at which there were many inquiries, he was asked to lead in prayer. He hesitated for a moment, and then in a clear resounding voice, said: "Oh Lord, now that I have flagged Thee, lift up my feet from the rough road of life and plant them safely on the deck of the Train of Salvation. Let us use the Safety Lamp known as Prudence: make all the Couplings of Train with the strong Link of Love, and let my Hand lamp be the Bible; and Heavenly Father, keep all Switches closed that lead off on the Sidings: especially those with a Blind End. Oh Lord, if it be Thy pleasure, have every Semaphore block along the line show the White Light of Hope, that I may make the Run of Life without stopping; and Lord give us the Ten Commandments for a Schedule, and when I have finished the run on Schedule time, and pulled into the dark station of Death, may Thou, (the Superintendent of the Universe) say, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant, come and sign the Pay Roll and receive your check for Eternal Happiness.'"

Mystery Solved.
The legend that Mrs. O'Leary's kicking cow knocked the lamp over and started the fire which swept Chicago in 1871 is challenged by the death bed declaration of Miss Rebecca Thrift, who died in the county infirmary here aged about 70 years.
"I started the Chicago fire," gasped the strange old woman, "and fearing arrest, I fled while the flames raged."
Further details, whatever these details may have been, were sealed by death and were buried in the potter's field along with the body of the woman whose life story has for more than 10 years been an impenetrable mystery.
Coincidentally with the burning of Chicago in '71, this woman was found secreted like a hunted animal in a straw stack on the Booth farm, south of this city. With her was a man. The vigilant spirit, rampant in those days, asserted itself in the form of a mob, which after a parley, spared her and feathers, but warned the man to leave the country. He fled and was never seen or heard of again.
The woman, sullen and dazed, made no explanation at the time, except that she was homeless and ill. She gave the name of Rebecca Thrift and was at that time apparently about 30 years old.
The authorities not knowing what to do with the odd charge thrust upon them, committed her to the county farm.
Here, for 45 years, she has remained a county dependent and never once has she consented to give the name and address of any relative, or to reveal other family history, and no one has ever believed she had given her real name and no one was ever able to learn her age. Less than the width of a city street away from the pauper grave into which the woman of mystery was lowered is the spot where she sought refuge in the straw stack in 1871—Falmouth Penitentiary.

The Kellogg-Haines Singing Party, Who Are to Appear at Our Chautauqua

THERE are five in the Kellogg-Haines Singing Party, including a pianist. Miss Imogene Gross, the soprano, has been soloist in several of the large churches of St. Louis. She was a pupil of Mrs. Stella Kellogg-Haines, for whom the Singing Party was originally named.

Miss Aitha Montague, the contralto, studied for two years under the well known Professor McBurney, Chicago, and was for a time soloist of the big Hyde Park Baptist Church in that city. She is a graduate of the Chicago University with an A. B. degree.

John Eichenberger, tenor, was soloist in several of the best paid church choirs in St. Louis, has had theatrical experience and has coached with the best teachers in this country.

William A. Goldberg, baritone, was a boy wonder on the violin, later discovering that he had a fine voice. He gave up the violin for voice, although he had played the violin for years professionally. He had also sung leading grand opera roles in English before entering the Lyceum.

Mr. Delbert Chute, the pianist, is a pupil of Henriot Levy, one of the foremost piano teachers in the United States, and has had work in harmony and theory with Adolph Brune.

QUALITY OF THE FARM BUSINESS.

The farmer may have sufficient area and grow the right kind of crops, yet not be successful, owing to the poor quality of his entire business. Poor crops that do not pay the cost of production and the feeding of these to unproductive live stock are common causes of failure. This characteristic of unbusinesslike farming attracts much public attention. Such farms are unprofitable largely through ignorance or indifference on the part of the operator. Under good management they can generally be made successful.

The improper organization of a large farm limits its possibilities, just as area limits the small farm. Single crops or single live stock enterprises seldom utilize farm labor to its maximum. By having several crops there is not only better distribution of labor, but the chances of total loss from crop failures are lessened. Fortunately, corn, oats and wheat utilize the farmer's time pretty thoroughly through the growing season. In some parts of this country certain crops that need labor only a part of the year may be so profitable that the farmer can afford to be idle the rest of the year. However, these are the exceptions. Most crops are not profitable enough to permit any such practice. Idle horses and machinery are nearly as expensive as idle men. If the working equipment can all be kept busy on paying enterprises success is almost assured.

TO CURE A CHOKED COW.

A Homemade Contrivance That Will Be Found Effective.

Now that the season for feeding roots in the yard or for turning cows into fields where turpils have been grown or feeding refuse apples is with us we occasionally hear of cows being choked. A contrivance that will be found effective to use in a case of this kind may be made of a round piece of wood two inches thick and seven inches long fastened to two side pieces eighteen inches long, with a hole bored at each end of the side pieces and also several holes in the round pieces of wood. This round piece is put into the mouth of the choking cow and a rope passed through the holes in the side pieces,

which is fastened over her head in the manner of a bridle. The animal breathes through the holes in the bit, and in her effort to rid her mouth of this a great flow of saliva takes place, which runs down her throat when she holds her head up and assists in causing the obstruction to pass down or be ejected. Besides, it entirely prevents the animals from becoming hoarse and thus dying from suffocation. There are many methods in use to assist animals that are choked, but many of them are dangerous on account of injuring the gutlet.

DAIRY NOTES.

In nearly every community the majority of the milk and cream producers realize that a large sum of money is lost annually because of the low score of butter sold at 1 or 2 cents per pound less than the best grades and are interested in the production of the kind of a product that will make good butter. The few that are disinterested or will not accept the advice of the butter maker as to how a better grade of cream can be produced are the ones that are responsible for the low quality of much butter.

A great deal of butter that sells for 30 cents per pound and the other kind that sells for 15 cents per pound is raised on the same land with only a rail fence between. The difference lies entirely in the brains of the men who produce it and the man who puts it on the big markets.

Every dairy farmer should have a milk house where it is possible to take care of the milk and the cream without letting it become contaminated with undesirable odors and flavors.

Some people think that the dry cow needs no care, but those that make the best records have the best care during their period of rest.

A concrete tank will not spring a leak, and at the same time it will always be ready for use.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system. To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

Arsenate of Lead For Tobacco Hookworm.

Washington, D. C., June 22, 1914.—Tobacco growers in Kentucky, Tennessee and adjoining States are advised by Government specialists to use arsenate of lead in freeing their crop of hookworm—the greatest pest that the grower in the dark tobacco districts has to face. Arsenate of lead is said to be both effective and safer than Paris Green, which has been used extensively against the pests for some years. With it there is no risk of burning the tobacco, and this alone, in the opinion of the United States Department of Agriculture, makes its use advisable despite the somewhat increased expense. In addition it appears, unlike Paris Green, to have no injurious effect upon the operator.

Until recent years it was customary to pick off hookworms by hand—"hand worming" as the work was called. As labor grew scarcer and less effective, however, this method became too expensive and growers were compelled to employ an insecticide. Of those first employed, Paris Green proved the most satisfactory—or rather the least unsatisfactory, for it frequently causes a considerable loss. In 1912, for example, in several fields in Tennessee it was estimated that the damage done by Paris Green ranged from 10 to 25 per cent of the gross value of the crop. Exceptional cases are on record where the damage has run as high as 50 per cent. Arsenate of lead causes none of this damage, according to statements in Farmers' Bulletin 355, "Arsenate of Lead as an Insecticide Against the Tobacco Hookworms in the Dark Tobacco Districts," just published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. On one occasion four acres of Kentucky tobacco were treated with an application of 5-14 pounds per acre of powdered arsenate of lead at a time when the worm averaged two a plant. Two days later only four live worms were found in the entire field. Weather conditions undoubtedly contributed to establish this extraordinary result, but they do not account for the fact that there was no injury to the tobacco from poison burn. The crop was well advanced and at a stage when Paris Green burn is very common.

To secure the best results, arsenate of lead should be mixed with some form of carrier. A number of experiments indicate that the most satisfactory carrier is finely sifted, freshly burned wood ashes, of which a quantity at least equal to that of the poison should be used. The two should be mixed very thoroughly and then applied when there is no breeze and the dew is still upon the tobacco. A dust gun more powerful than the hand power ones now in general use is requisite if the application is to be even, thorough and therefore effective.

The cost of this treatment depends, of course, upon the condition of the crop. It is estimated, however, that in years when worms are plentiful hand worming costs from $6 to $10 an acre. Paris Green will do the same amount of work for not more than $2 an acre and arsenate of lead at a cost of from $3 to $5 an acre. From 3-12 to 5 pounds of the latter should be used at each application not including, of course, the weight of the carrier. Since powdered arsenate of lead retails at approximately 25 cents a pound, the cost of each application will range from 88c to $1.25, or less if the material is purchased in large quantities exclusive of the cost of carrier, labor and other factors. This may seem expensive, but it must be remembered, the bulletin points out, that arsenate of lead is recommended not for its cheapness, but because it is certain not to injure the tobacco. In some years one application may be sufficient; in others, two or even three may be necessary. The number of eggs and young worms that appear on the plants will decide this.

Although the arsenate can be applied as a water spray in the proportion of three or four pounds to 100 gallons of water, the powdered form is the one recommended by the Government experts. It is important, moreover, that there should be a large percentage of arsenic in the poison. In order to obtain this the customer should insist upon what is known as the diplobic and not the triplobic form of arsenate of lead. For his guidance the bulletin lays down the following rule:

In order to be sure of receiving the diplobic form, demand that the manufacturer and dealer guarantee that the arsenate of lead you buy contains at least 30 per cent of arsenic acid in which not more than 1 per cent is free or water soluble.

It is necessary to have a small percentage of free water-soluble arsenic in order to insure against burning the tobacco.

BRILLIANT D.

For the season of 1914 at my farm on Boggs' Lane, near Richmond, at $15 to Insure Living Colt Brilliant D. is a Percheron horse, bred by W. R. Grimsley, of Sweetwater, Ill., color gray, foaled April 6, 1906. Sired by Gault's Percheron stallion imported by Dunham, Fletcher & Coleman, of Wayne, Ill. Gault's sire by Etretat, he by Volcan, he by Bineville, he by Voltaire, he by Brilliant. Dam, Mag, black mare by Roscoe, he by James Brown's Brilliant (a prize winner at the Chicago World's Fair), he by Brilliant, one of the foremost Percherons of either France or America, for which Mr. Dunham was offered a very long price to let him go back to France. So it will be seen that Brilliant D. is very deeply bred in the Brilliant blood and is fully entitled to the name Brilliant.

I wish to impress upon parties having mares to breed that Brilliant D. weighs 1700 pounds. I believe the time is at hand when it takes weight to bring the money. Readers of the Breeders' Gazette will notice that within the last few days large numbers of Percheron mares have been sold for prices around $500.

At the same time and place, will stand my promising young jack

LONG TOM

At $10 to Insure Living Colt

This jack is of big bone, good head and ears and must be seen to be appreciated. His coils are of exceptional size and quality. Long Tom needs no hot air blown on him. Every man that has bred to him is his life long friend and patron. Long Tom is to the mule world what Peter the Great and Rex Peavine are to the trotting and saddle horse world. He is by William Todd's big jack, he by Marmaduke, 1st dam by Big Andy, he by Tom Keene, he by Rube Billington; 2nd dam by Lear's Napoleon.

Money due in both cases when colt is foaled, mare parted with or bred to another horse or jack. Care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur. Mares kept on grass at 10 cents per day.

THERE are five in the Kellogg-Haines Singing Party, including a pianist. Miss Imogene Gross, the soprano, has been soloist in several of the large churches of St. Louis. She was a pupil of Mme. Stella Kellogg-Haines, for whom the Singing Party was originally named.

Miss Aitha Montague, the contralto, studied for two years under the well known Professor McBurney, Chicago, and was for a time soloist of the big Hyde Park Baptist Church in that city. She is a graduate of the Chicago University with an A. B. degree.

John Eichenberger, tenor, was soloist in several of the best paid church choirs in St. Louis, has had theatrical experience and has coached with the best teachers in this country.

William A. Goldburg, baritone, was a boy wonder on the violin, later discovering that he had a fine voice. He gave up the violin for voice, although he had played the violin for years professionally. He had also sung leading grand opera roles in English before entering the Lyceum.

Mr. Delbert Clarke, the pianist, is a pupil of Henlot Levy, one of the foremost piano teachers in the United States, and has had work in harmony and theory with Adolph Brune.

QUALITY OF THE FARM BUSINESS.

The farmer may have sufficient area and grow the right kind of crops, yet not be successful, owing to the poor quality of his entire business. Poor crops that do not pay the cost of production and the feeding of these to unproductive live stock are common causes of failure. This characteristic of unsuccessful farming attracts much public attention. Such farms are unprofitable largely through ignorance or indifference on the part of the operator. Under good management they can generally be made successful.

The improper organization of a large farm limits its possibilities, just as area limits the small farm. Single crops or single live stock enterprises seldom utilize farm labor to its maximum. By having several crops there is not only better distribution of labor, but the chances of total loss from crop failures are lessened. Fortunately, corn, oats and wheat utilize the farmer's time pretty thoroughly through the growing season. In some parts of this country certain crops that need labor only a part of the year may be so profitable, that the farmer can afford to be idle the rest of the year. However, these are the exceptions. Most crops are not profitable enough to permit any such practice. Idle horses and machinery are nearly as expensive as idle men. If the working equipment can all be kept busy all paying enterprises success is almost assured.

TO CURE A CHOKED COW.

A Homemade Contrivance That Will Be Found Effective.

Now that the season for feeding roots in the yard or for turning cows into fields where turnips have been grown or feeding refuse apples is with us we occasionally hear of cows being choked. A contrivance that will be found effective to use in a case of this kind may be made of a round piece of wood two inches thick and seven inches long fastened to two side pieces eighteen inches long, with a hole bored at each end of the side pieces and also several holes in the round pieces of wood. This round piece is put into the mouth of the choking cow and a rope passed through the holes in the side pieces,

which is fastened over her head in the manner of a bridle. The animal breathes through the holes in the bit, and in her effort to rid her mouth of this great flow of saliva takes place, which runs down her throat when she holds her head up and assists in causing the obstruction to pass down or be ejected. Besides, it entirely prevents the animals from becoming hoarse and thus dying from suffocation. There are many methods in use to assist animals that are choked, but many of them are dangerous on account of injuring the gutlet.

DAIRY NOTES.

In nearly every community the majority of the milk and cream producers realize that a large sum of money is lost annually because of the low score of butter sold at 1 or 2 cents per pound less than the best grades and are interested in the production of the kind of a product that will make good butter. The few that are disinterested or will not accept the advice of the butter maker as to how a better grade of cream can be produced are the ones that are responsible for the low quality of much butter.

A great deal of butter that sells for 30 cents per pound and the other kind that sells for 15 cents per pound is raised on the same land with only a rail fence between. The difference lies entirely in the brains of the men who produce it and the man who puts it on the big markets.

Every dairy farmer should have a milk house where it is possible to take care of the milk and the cream without letting it become contaminated with undesirable odors and flavors.

Some people think that the dry cow needs no care, but those that make the best records have the best care during their period of rest.

A concrete tank will not spring a leak, and at the same time it will always be ready for use.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system. To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's greatest blood-purifier, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

Arsenate of Lead For Tobacco Hookworm.

Washington, D. C., June 22, 1914.—Tobacco growers in Kentucky, Tennessee and adjoining States are advised by Government specialists to use arsenate of lead in freeing their crop of hookworm—the greatest pest that the grower in the dark tobacco districts has to face. Arsenate of lead is said to be both effective and safer than Paris Green, which has been used extensively against the pests for some years. With it there is no risk of burning the tobacco, and this alone, in the opinion of the United States Department of Agriculture, makes its use advisable despite the somewhat increased expense. In addition it appears, unlike Paris Green, to have no injurious effect upon the operator.

Until recent years it was customary to pick off hookworms by hand—"hand worming" as the work was called. As labor grew scarcer and less effective, however, this method became too expensive and growers were compelled to employ an insecticide. Of those first employed, Paris Green proved the most satisfactory—or rather the least unsatisfactory, for it frequently causes a considerable loss. In 1912, for example, in several fields in Tennessee it was estimated that the damage done by Paris Green ranged from 10 to 25 per cent of the gross value of the crop. Exceptional cases are on record where the damage has run as high as 50 per cent. Arsenate of lead causes none of this damage, according to statements in Farmers' Bulletin 335, "Arsenate of Lead as an Insecticide Against the Tobacco Hookworms in the Dark Tobacco Districts," just published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. On one occasion four acres of Kentucky tobacco were treated with an application of 5 1/4 pounds per acre of powdered arsenate of lead at a time when the worm averaged two a plant. Two days later only four live worms were found in the entire field. Weather conditions undoubtedly contributed to establish this extraordinary result, but they do not account for the fact that there was no injury to the tobacco from poison burn. The crop was well advanced and at a stage when Paris Green burn is very common.

To secure the best results, arsenate of lead should be mixed with some form of carrier. A number of experiments indicate that the most satisfactory carrier is finely sifted, freshly burned wood ashes, of which a quantity at least equal to that of the poison should be used. The two should be mixed very thoroughly and then applied when there is no breeze and the dew is still upon the tobacco. A dust gun more powerful than the hand power ones now in general use is requisite if the application is to be even, thorough and therefore effective.

The cost of this treatment depends, of course, upon the condition of the crop. It is estimated, however, that in years when worms are plentiful hand worming costs from $6 to $10 an acre. Paris Green will do the same amount of work for not more than $2 an acre and arsenate of lead at a cost of from $3 to $5 an acre. From 3 1/2 to 5 pounds of the "atter should be used at each application not including, of course, the weight of the carrier. Since powdered arsenate of lead retails at approximately 25 cents a pound, the cost of each application will range from 88c to $1.25, or less if the material is purchased in large quantities exclusive of the cost of carrier, labor and other factors. This may seem expensive, but it must be remembered, the bulletin points out, that arsenate of lead is recommended not for its cheapness, but because it is certain not to injure the tobacco. In some years one application may be sufficient; in others, two or even three may be necessary. The number of eggs and young worms that appear on the plants will decide this.

Although the arsenate can be applied as a water spray in the proportion of three or four pounds to 100 gallons of water, the powdered form is the one recommended by the Government experts. It is important, moreover, that there should be a large percentage of arsenic in the poison. In order to obtain this the customer should insist upon what is known as the diplobomic and not the triplobomic form of arsenate of lead. For his guidance the bulletin lays down the following rule:

"In order to be sure of receiving the diplobomic form, demand that the manufacturer and dealer guarantee that the arsenate of lead you buy contains at least 30 per cent of arsenic in which not more than 1 per cent is free or water soluble."

It is necessary to have a small percentage of free or water-soluble arsenic in order to insure against burning the tobacco.

The sale of property in this city by the Jessamine Realty Co., to take place Saturday afternoon, is an opportunity not often met with; 10 houses and lots and 15 vacant lots are to be sold. A chance to buy a home on easy terms, or if you have a little surplus money, invest it and get good rental.

The Zip Automobile.
The "Zip" fully expresses it. The idea is it goes, it gets you there. Its name is little, like the price. Its within the reach of every pocket book. Thirty to forty miles on one gallon of gasoline; 10,000 to 12,000 miles on one set of tires; $995 the price. Gaines & Anderson, of Silver Creek, are agents. Talk to them. See the machine. It's a beauty to look at, easily operated and a "dandy" to get about in.

Kentucky Utilities Company Announces Free Service To Invalids.

Free electric fan service for the benefit of the sick is offered this summer by the Kentucky Utilities Company. announces Mr. J. T. Bogard, the local manager. The offer the company makes in effect is that electric fans and, where necessary, the current to operate, will be furnished without cost to persons seriously ill who are unable to pay for the service. The only conditions are that the attending physician must certify to the reasonable necessity for fan service, and to the patient's inability to afford it. The offer, of course, applies where the sick room is within reach of the company's lines.

"The reason for making conditions of any kind is for the obvious purpose of protecting the free electric for the use of those who really need it and cannot afford it," says Manager Bogard. "It is a public welfare proposition and is an evidence of the general policy of our company. No hard and fast rules are enforced regarding the free service, our aim being to make it do as much good as possible. During the summer months there are always cases where the use of an electric fan greatly improves the condition of the patient, and sometimes represents the narrow margin between life and death. This offer has been made and received with approval and at once utilized by the physicians in other cities where our company operates."

So long! Good-bye! I'll see you at the QUICK ACTION SALE! 21

Credit Due Hon. J. Tevis Cobb.
A recent issue of the Courier Journal states that Attorney Callhoun, of Washington City, had succeeded in collecting from the U. S. Government $3,082.96 due Madison county on a claim pending some years. Hon. J. Tevis Cobb is entitled to the credit of making the collection. Many years ago, when the Richmond and Stanford railroad was built, this county took stock and paid an income tax on dividends, which was afterward declared by the court to be illegal. When Mr. Cobb was county attorney he undertook to collect the money thus illegally paid out by Madison county. As Mr. Callhoun was in Washington, Mr. Cobb employed him to assist in the case. It is through Mr. Cobb's persistent efforts that the debt was a few days ago paid.

The Mammoth Cave Excursion.
Those who visited the Cave from our city last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Jas. B. Deatherage, Misses Elizabeth Burman, Jeanette Pates, Ruth Barnes, Elizabeth Hagan, Zella Rice, Eva Congleton and Miss Dabbs, of Berea, Mesdames E. B. Barnes, Shelby Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Congleton and little Joe, the sunshine of the party, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, of Berea, Mr. Gordon Barnes and Mr. Robert Arnold. There were 58 in the entire party. At the Cave a company arranged by Mrs. Barnes, the chaplaine, visited Colossal Cavern, thought by many to be equal in wonder to Mammoth Cave. The Richmond group report a delightful trip. One of the prettiest girls lost her heart, and there is no hope of finding it in the near future. Mr. Congleton was the gallant of the crowd and made himself indispensable, aided by Mr. Deatherage, in looking after the comforts of the entire party. The Hotel Waldorf-Astoria at the Cave is a sacred spot, long to be remembered by all who have ever crossed its spacious threshold.

Try Lackey & Todd's teas and coffees. They are good. Phone 62. 33-17

Headquarters Opened.
Governor McCreary last week followed the lead of Congressman Stanley and former Governor Beckham and opened his headquarters in the Seelbach Hotel, at Louisville. Judge Allie W. Young will give Governor McCreary as much of his time as possible and will be regarded as the director of the campaign. The headquarters, however, will be in charge of Mr. T. L. Jefferson, of Louisville, and Captain George T. Farris, Executive Marshall at Frankfort.

Senator J. N. Camden has appointed Hon. W. O. Davis, of Versailles, as his private secretary. A splendid appointment.

Laws Now In Force.
All the laws enacted by the Legislature at the last session, with the exception of the Green-Glenn insurance law, which has been suspended under an agreement, are now in effect. It behooves the fellows who have been in the habit of carrying concealed weapons, giving cold checks, bootlegging whisky or shipping it into dry territory for purposes other than the personal use of the consignor to get posted. The penalties are severe. Likewise it is up to the employers of laborers and workmen of all trades and of children to know and understand the new laws affecting them and to give their employees the benefit of a digest of these laws. The "25 per cent amendment" to the local option law is to have its first tryout thoroughly in Fayette, Scott, Bourbon, Clark and Montgomery counties. It has been decided by the State W. C. T. U. to call elections in each of these counties for Monday, September 28. It is doubtful if they will fail to get 25 per cent of the voters in each of the counties to sign the call for the election, unless it be in Fayette, as a result of mercantile influences. The campaign will be hard fought on both sides, inasmuch as the liquor forces will put up a more stubborn resistance than heretofore. There is more at stake.

The annual Sunday-school Convention, held at Salem church Saturday the 20th, was largely attended and the day was greatly enjoyed by all who were present. The crowd was entertained by several addresses, that of Dr. W. K. Price being especially good. He offered hospitality, pure and simple, to the visiting crowd. He was followed by H. T. Guthrie, Miss Maude S. Dance and others. A bountiful dinner was served on the grounds, enough for all and plenty left. It was a day, indeed, long to be remembered.

SILVER CREEK.
Mrs. McElmro, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. C. L. Farris this week.

Farmers in this community have been wearing a very pleased expression for the ideal weather that they are having during harvest, but their expression may change after threshing time, as the yield is so large that the price will probably drop.

Mrs. Sallie A. Willis, who is at home from Florida, has gone to Cincinnati for a few days, where she will be joined by her daughter, Miss Amos Willis. They will spend the summer in Kentucky.

Mr. Joe Hagan and family have returned from Slate Lick, where they spent a week.

Messrs. Orbel Arnold and Carl Cotton motored to High Bridge Sunday.

Prof. H. R. Kirk, the efficient principal of the graded school here, has resigned to accept the principalship of the Irvington high school. Prof. Kirk has had charge of the school here for the past two years, was one of the county supervisors and an estimable and genial young man. The community will feel the loss both of himself and his excellent wife from the social circle. Prof. Kirk will be succeeded by Prof. Paris H. Akin.

Miss Myrtle Estes has taken the place of Mrs. Kirk in the telephone exchange here.

P. M. Snyder left Monday for North Carolina to spend the summer with his mother.

Wilson Brandenburg shipped a car of hogs to Cincinnati Saturday.

BEREA.

The ball game here Saturday between Berea and Point Leavell resulted in a score of 7 to 4 in favor of the Pt. Leavell team.

We are having large crowds in attendance at the Chautauqua this week.

Mrs. Mary Creevy returned Monday to her home in Pittsburg, after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Sallie Cornelson and other relatives here.

Mr. Andy Smith is visiting home folks here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jones spent Sunday with Prof. and Mrs. Dodge.

Robert F. Spence returned Monday, after a ten days' vacation spent in North Carolina amid the beauties of nature. His headquarters were Montreat, a summer resort and a Presbyterian stronghold of the South. There are 176 cottages, besides two large hotels, the Albia and the Montreat, which will accommodate 300 to 400 guests each. He crossed the Appalachians into the Piedmont regions, and was much impressed with the beautiful scenery and with the ingenuity of construction of the railway across the mountains. The line can be seen at 17 points in crossing. He climbed to the top of Lookout Peak, from where could be seen the ever-winding narrow gauge railroad, used for hauling logs from the mountains to the mills of the Black Mountain Lumber Co. One of his most interesting trips was to Mt. Mitchell, the highest mountain east of the Rockies, and reached its summit by the aid of a mule's tail, having been taken ill before the last mile was reached and had to be assisted. There were five in the party—the guide, Mr. Patton, the mule man, Billie Fortune, Miss Laura Bridgema, Miss Agnes Tyler and himself. A campfire was built and the young ladies prepared supper. At 12:30 the camp was awaked by the excited braying of the mules, which had become stampeded on the appearance of a panther prowling around the camp, evidently ill-pleased at strangers on his hunting grounds. The beast was seven to nine feet in length. The remainder of the night was spent in some fear and dread. He brings back with him the rattlers of a rattlesnake which he killed; also a balsam fir walking stick, cut from Mt. Mitchell, as souvenirs. He also slew a copperhead and had many other wonderful experiences, one of which was the party spent a whole day above the clouds. A visit was made to the Y. M. C. A. Conference of Blue Ridge, N. C., and he reports a wonderful work being done under the leadership of Dr. Weatherford. He witnessed a base ball game between Kentucky and North Carolina teams. Mr. Spence will take up work in the United States service—agricultural work—at Hindman, Knott county, the first of July.

Dear Amy: When I wrote you last I thought I had furniture enough, but Baby John soils his dresses so often that I had to buy another chiffonier just to put his things in. He so much enjoys having one of the drawers for his playthings. My, but doesn't a chiffonier help you keep the house in order!

Your pal,
